HERITAGE STATEMENT

CO-OPERATIVE POST OFFICE, NORFOLK STREET, GLOSSOP SK13 8BS

The building is a grade II Listed Building which was formally the engine sheds for the Railway Station, and which is now a large Retail Unit comprising of: Co-op Food/Co-op Pharmacy & Co-op Post Office.

The building is constructed from Millstone grit ashlar to end walls, coursed rubble to sides and welsh slates roof and a single story asymmetrical front to Norfolk Street.

The retail unit has been trading for a number of years and it is in the commercial & Conservation area of Glossop.

The Railway Station was designated as a Grade II Listed structure in December 1958.

The Station was originally built in 1847 for Henry Howard and has the Howard stone above the entrance doorway which is the emblem of Henry Howard.

The site lies towards the centre of Glossop within the defined town centre limits for the settlement as defined on the High Peak Local Plan Proposals maps and falls in within the designated Norfolk Square Conservation Area.
