Ibis Design,
The Old Barn, Town End, Taddington,
Buxton, Derbyshire SK17 9UF
Tel: 01298 85541

Foul Sewage and Utilities:

The development proposed will be connected to the existing combined public sewer.

Flood Risk:

The proposed property faces no flood risk.

Site Waste Management:

Excavation of ground in the region of the parking area will be required, together with arising form foundation preparation. All excavated material will need to be removed from site. This will be handled by a responsible, licensed excavation contractor who will organise suitable tipping.

Refuse Disposal:

The proposal would be served by the Local Authority refuse and recycling service.

Parking and Access:

The development proposal will be provided with the required number of off street parking spaces, with a turning area allowing vehicles to aggress in forward gear.