development this is called a “condition precedent”. The following should be noted with regards to conditions precedent:
(a) If a condition precedent is not complied with, the whole of the development will be unauthorised and you may be liable to enforcement action.
(b) Where a condition precedent is breached and the development is unauthorised, the only way to rectify the development is the submission of a new application.

Other conditions on this permission must also be complied with. Failure to comply with any condition may render the owner(s) and the person(s) responsible for the implementation of the development liable to enforcement action.

The permission is granted in strict accordance with the approved plans. It should be noted however that:
(a) Any variation from the approved plans following commencement of the development irrespective of the degree of variation will constitute unauthorised development and may be liable to enforcement action.
(b) Variation to the approved plans will require the submission of a new planning application.
