Application no: HPK/2016/0496

Determined on: 09/11/2016

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Planning and Compensation Act 1991
Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisement) (England) Regulations 2007

REFUSAL OF CONSENT TO DISPLAY AN ADVERTISEMENT

Location of Development:

Co-Operative Supermarket Norfolk Street Glossop Derbyshire SK13 8BS

Description of Development:

Advertisement consent for two fascia signs

In pursuance of their power under the above mentioned Act, High Peak Borough Council Planning Authority, HEREBY REFUSE CONSENT for the display of advertisements described above in accordance with plans ref: Location Plan, 128022-RevB

1. The signs by reason of their visual appearance and siting will result in material harm to the amenity of the Norfolk Square Conservation Area and harm to the special architectural and historic interest of the listed building contrary to the terms of Policies S5 and EQ7 of the High Peak Local Plan 2016 and Paragraphs 67 and 131 of the National Planning Policy Framework.

2. The retention of the two fascia signs are not considered to amount to a public benefit given that there are several other advertisements benefiting from consent serving the pharmacy. The cumulative impact of the additional signage will result in some harm to the significance of the heritage asset and Norfolk Square Conservation Area and in the absence of any public benefits presented to outweigh this harm, the signage is considered to be contrary to Paragraphs 67 and 134 of the National Planning Policy Framework and Policies S5 and EQ6 of the High Peak Local Plan 2016.

Informative

Prior to the determination of the application the Council advised the applicant that the principle of such development is unsustainable and did not conform with the provisions of the NPPF. It is considered that the applicant is unable to overcome such principle concerns and thus no amendments to the application were requested.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
2. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. All other types of development have a 6 month deadline for submission of appeals. Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.
3. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council

(District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
