Whilst there is a general presumption to retain traditional shopfronts there is no historic surround or detailing and provided that the stone can be neatly matched and a sensitive design to the windows and front door proposed, I see no objection. It would be preferable to secure a vertically sliding sash for the new windows (see first floor opposite). It would be also an improvement to keep the outline of the door facing St Mary's Road (recessed panel of stone) to maintain the historic legibility of the building.
