Comments: Dinting Adderley Place - Simmondley Lane is congested as it is at the bottom where it meets the A57. An additional 100+ vehicles trying to gain access is ridiculous. Let alone the disruption to residents of construction vehicles. More importantly it is removing green lands from our area. We moved to the area as it has plenty of nice walks and is just outside Glossop. Now we are finding houses being built in every available plot of land. And the houses are low quality m, bring the value of the area down, all so a developer can turn a profit.
