Comments: To whom it may concern,

I am getting in contact towards the planning application of Ciara Curran and Phil Speakman with regards to an extension.

Not only would this be beneficial to the family with the hope of extending the family further but the additional space would help with the support that Ciara gives to Little Heartbeats which is a parent/volunteer led patient advocacy group for women and families. Ciara gave me and my family hope, please help her to get the additional space in order for her to continue supporting many parents who go through pprom like me.

it would be beneficial for the extension to be granted so that she can help the many more women going through this condition.

Ciara over the years has helped 1000s of women and with more space she will be able to help 1000's more.

The service that Ciara provides is extremely important.
