Comments: 100 more houses puts more pressure on schools, GP's and roads in this area. It's already a nightmare trying to get in and out of Glossop and try getting up and down Simmondley Lane at school time, with all the parked cars. It's gridlock at school times with parents dropping children off at Dinting Primary school and Simmondley Primary and both the secondary schools. Another road going on to the A57 from Adderley Place will make things even worse.
