Comments: I don't feel this is in keeping with the area, especially since this is a conservation area too. It'll be unsightly, many people including myself use the route for dog walks etc and I see many people every day sitting on the bench across the road from where this is planned. It's lovely to see the community using the area in a positive way and I feel this will be lost if planning goes ahead. There are many other areas within Hadfield that this would be better suited to
