Comments: Isn't this a Conservation Area? Isn't this the prettiest and most historic part of Hadfield? Speaking personally, as a resident of the area for over 30 years, this is the one bit of Hadfield that offers a glimpse of an older Hadfield before the Industrial Revolution. I treasure this area, and I'm sure many local people do, too. This proposed tower and cabinet construction would be a monstrous eyesore that would destroy the character of this most historic and most special part of Hadfield. I object to this proposal and would like to see the Council require alternative proposals to be put forward to secure our digital future. Surely, this is not the answer?
