Comments: The square is the only heritage site in Hadfield with some of the buildings going back to the Middle Ages. There are old farms, cotton weaver's cottages and the Old Hall was built by Mr Hadfield himself. It is not in keeping with the aesthetics of the area. There is a place for 'the future', but it should not be at the expense of the past. It would dominate the landscape, overshadow and take away the amenity and enjoyment of the open green space (one of only a handful of spaces we have left in Hadfield).
