Previous planning application discussed then withdrawn due to our belief planning was not required for just for refurbishment of existing balcony

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

Amendments Summary

Dear Sir / Madam, All drawings have been resubmitted as requested as per your email dated 24/1/23 and following a conversation with Millie in the planning support team. All documents have been resubmitted showing paper and scale size as requested, and two ground floor plans showing proposed and existing as advised by Millie. As there is no proposed change to the first floor this drawing is now withdrawn as irrelevant. Following advice we have also amended declaration Form B which was submitted by mistakes we were confused.

Many thanks, Steve Kilburn
