Submission: Objection

Comments: can i ask why this is dragging on so long,i strongly object and have detailed my objections in december,but the decision should have been made in january and for some reason the public consultation and the decision has been put back a month,,this is a ludicrous application only designed as a back door to build houses afdter a failed application a few years ago and a big appeal which they lost.we have under used camping sites in chapel and glamping sites in combs,why would we need more
