Submission: Objection

Comments: I previously commented and stated the gym had stopped playing music in the early morning - this is no longer the case as I've been woken at 6am twice this week by the gym playing some terrible quality dance music. I have recently converted the front windows of my house to double glazing so not much else I can do to keep the noise out. I'm not against conversion to a gym in principle, but there needs to be some kind of noise assessment and soundproofing if they want to play Lady Gaga on a loudspeaker at 6am.
