Comments: I feel that this would be a productive use of an empty property. If the refugees are well supported by the local community and government/local government agencies there should not be any issues. I am not surprised at Mr Largan whipping up fear and mistrust, but I hope people do not listen to him. Let's give these people a chance to become part of our community, with a safe space to live and rebuild their lives. 300 people is not a lot in a town this size - given we have lost our HE students. It also takes the pressure off overburdened counties such as Kent. It's good for us to do 'our bit'.
