Comments: I do not believe Buxton is an appropriate place to house such a large volume of migrants. Reading stories of other towns that have had an influx of migrants show the disruption involved when gangs of migrant men roaming, littering and not respecting the local area. The men come across as intimidating, especially towards women as they come from back grounds where equality isn't a strong value. As a father and husband I strongly object on the grounds that the council is not thinking of the town/local towns residents.
