The University is using the pretext that they are in a position where we can provide some limited help to individuals who have fled their country when in reality they are sitting on three new (18 years old) buildings which they cannot now find a use for. I am sure that if these were saleable properties they would have been placed on the market as have other buildings which they purchased during their brief course of development in Buxton. With concerns to on-going financial implications, who is going to be paying for the running costs of operating this accommodation- High Peak Borough Council?
