Comments: Crossgates farm campsite is amazing. It is a well run, beautiful bit of paradise that the family have put their heart and soul into.

If this planning application is refused I fear for the future of this gorgeous place and local residents will end up with another 50/60 houses being built in an area that already struggles with local resources. Traffic would be worse than it currently is and the stunning views the area is known for will be lost forever.

I fully support this application and hope that the camp site is available for future generations to enjoy as much as we do.
