Dear Terri,

Thank you for your email. I've had a quick look at the file and the comments uploaded. I would suggest that the email exchange between the case officer and conservation officer is the record of the consultation response – i.e. that there are no issues. I note you have emailed Emily, our conservation officer who will be able to confirm to you that this is the case.

I've also copied in colleagues who will be able to review the two documents that you have referred to. 12/06/2023 Landscape and Visual Impact Assessment – I too cannot get this document to download, so it may need re-uploading to the system. 23/05/2023 Heritage Statement, I have been able to download however, though it took a few moments to appear.

Perhaps the 12/06/2023 could be forwarded directly for your review. James, please can you assist

Kind regards

Holly Jones

DEAR HOLLY

I hope this finds you well.

Please read the email below reHPK/2023/0193 and the CONSERVATION REVIEW input today - that is not there, plus many residents have emailed officers re HERITAGE and VISUAL IMPACT not being viewable to the public on line. Today is last day of public consultation -So this is all of great concern.

It has also been raised public comments are not being uploaded in a timely way.

Thank you

BEST WISHES TERRI BRUMBY SK237QA

DEAR EMILY

I hope this finds you well. RE HPK/2023/0193

A SUBMISSION had appeared on the public consultation on line that ends today JUNE 29TH 23. It is titled CONSULTATION RESPONSE CONSERVATION OFFICER

It is an email conversation of JUNE 22 23 between your self and JAMES STANNARD

He asks you for a quick consultation response though he doesn't think you will have any issues.

You reply - I don't foresee any issues with this.

Then there is NO CONSULTATION RESPONSE from you up loaded with the email. Can you explain this please.

As you can imagine this looks rather alarming to the public reading this. If you have read the full public page so far you can see both VISUAL IMPACT and HERITAGE are not viewable though submitted. It has been flagged up to PLANNING and the officers but nothing has changed and this is the last day of public consultation.

Thank you
