Thankyou for your consultation.

This is a commendably sensitive and limited proposal and we raise no concerns.

The only loss will be of the seating itself and even there two seats will be moved to the perimeter of the new space.

The "shell" of the boxpews, so important to the internal character of this listed building, will remain to all visual intent, unaltered.

We presume that there will be appropriate conditions about "making good" after the resiting of the seats.
