Comments: The buildings should be for local needy and homeless. The constant turn over of people will affect the towns stability tourism and business will fail there aren't enough doctors dentists and infrastructure we will need more police the town is not large enough to accommodate this change Buxton as is it now will cease to exist just so that Derbyshire University can make a lot of money. When house prices fall will we get lower council tax demands ? Apparently the people who live and make Buxton don't count
