Comments: This move would be no way beneficial to the town or residents of Buxton.

The Police of Buxton are already stretched to their limit and any animosity would cause them more difficulty.

Considering other areas that have opened their borders to and then they have disappeared i feel this to be a dangerous move.

Also without prejudice what an awful area to place families, unless of course "men only" would be coming as is happening in other counties.

I think this application should be denied and that we keep Buxton the safe tourist destination it is famous for.
