Submission: Objection

Comments: I strongly object to the University of Derby halls of residence being converted into an asylum dispersal centre when so many local people are struggling to put a roof over their heads, this problem is going to increase over the next year as mortgage rates rise and some family's may have their homes repossessed. This property would be better used for local homeless people. In the past the University of Derby was supported well by the people of Buxton, perhaps it's time to change their mind about the application
