Submission: Objection

Comments: members of the Buxton public should be allowed to take part in a Local vote on this issue, which will have grave consequences on the town's shopping and outlying area, every daytripper will no longer come back and the effect by word of mouth will devastate Buxton's traders/shops these Halls of Residence should be put to better use for local families who can not afford their own property. This Labour council rode rough shot over local people by spending £8.250 million pounds on the SPRINGS CENTRE which will turn out to be a white elephant. the Police will not be able to control any problems between locals and immigrants, especially at weekends.

Do we the people of Buxton not have a say in this issue?
