Submission: Support

Comments: I am totally in favour of supporting displaced people.

I am sure if your campaign reached more People there would be a better representation.
Where is our compassion to embrace and support those in need, rather than reject!
Provocative campaign leading with 'Show your official objection' rather than 'show your opinion'

Local people should be considered more in the building of affordable homes with green space and play areas for children. You are only thinking of homes for local people now that the university has put forward planning to support asylum seekers to help them with their onward journey wherever that may be.

Well I dont object..please note it!
