Comments: Have you wondered why Buxton has so many pubs and restaurants where in so many other towns they have closed. It's because Buxton is a tourist destination. Look at the pavilion gardens and the Main Street at any weekend. It's full of visiting families. The proposed new residents predominantly male between 20 & 40 will be out of the accommodation during the day and the area they will be hanging around will be the area's tourist areas. As a parent this would be a reason not to visit again. This will destroy the tourist economy in our beautiful town. The pubs, restaurants and shops we are so lucky to have will face the same fate as those in many towns in the UK. It will be a disaster for our local economy and community.
