Comments: Think that this will cause a rise in antisocial behaviour and crime as it is to house men between 20-30 whilst waiting for them to be able to stay and work in this country. I also believe that the building could be used for much better reasons, ie providing small cheap flats for local young people who are being priced out of local houses either to buy or rent. I think it will have a detrimental effect on the look and feel of the town, tourists come to enjoy the towns architecture and having possibly 100s of men in town with nothing to do and unable to work will effect tourism
