Submission: Objection

Comments: As a life long resident in Buxton for the last 59 years, I strongly object to the plans for the Halls to become an asylum centre. Not only will it jeopardise the safety of ALL residents, young, old, vulnerable, it will also have a detrimental effect on the towns tourism. I personally, will not feel comfortable walking to my daily job at 5.30am past this centre and I'm sure many residents have the same concerns. This plan will be the absolute downfall of a beautiful tourist town.
