Comments: I actually cannot believe that the Council are proposing to support the opening of an Immigration Centre in the middle of our small town. From my perspective, Buxton is already struggling. It's almost a tale of two cities, the tourists and the affluent live unaffected, visiting the Crescent, Opera House and Pavilion Gardens, while the other half of town is left to rot! By the time you walk down past Argos, it's like the atmosphere changes and descends the closer you get to Fairfield Road, which let's face it, is an absolute disgrace. Why on earth do we want further negative energy entering our town? I imagine those making the decisions will be far removed from its impact and so care very little..
