Comments: The above planning application is flawed. Buxton would not be the same town and would lose business. This should not be about making money from the government but how this would affect local people, businesses and surrounding areas. Buxton is a tourist town definitely not an appropriate place for an asylum dispersal centre. Local people struggle enough to access amenities. There is the possible possibility of intimidation, possible crime increase and loitering. Any decision should be based on improvements for Buxton, this would certainly be negative.
