Comments: I cant honestly believe this is even being considered for a struggling town like ours. There is already a massive strain on doctors, dentists etc. There will be gangs and locals will be intimidated. I have 2 teenage daughters who will no longer be safe in their home town. I hope the people who think that this us a good idea have thought about their families safety. Women will no longer be safe. Buxton is a tourist town, do you really think the tourists will still come when there are gangs everywhere? This is a huge mistake.
