Submission: Objection

Comments: This is appalling and as usual not thought through. The influx of largely unemployed young men will certainly have a damaging effect on Buxton, especially local business and tourism. I was born and bred in Buxton and have always questioned the logic of HPBC. Buxton, I understand has won a some of money to invest in the shopping centre and now they are willing to damage its reputation and overload what is an already stretched infrastructure - Doctors, Dentists Hospitals and alike. Surely we have local people who need help with accommodation. Let's help them first. Come on HPBC do the right thing for once
