Comments: I am a resident of Glossop, and often go to Buxton to socialise with friends who live locally.

We like many others in the area, oppose this planning application.

Having seen first hand in other areas, how these Asylum seekers hang around in groups, usually young men, intimidating shoppers and people who go about their daily business.

Like many who already live in areas where these other asylum seekers are housed, i would not feel safe, and thus would not be going to Buxton should this go ahead.

I fear what impact this will have on local business, and hospitality trades when people no longer go to Buxton to stay or visit.

There are many homeless UK residents that desperately need help, therefore the council should be looking to help these who are homeless, vulnerable, and get little to no help to rectify their way of living.

Its about time the local councils, MP's and Government woke up to what is really needed
