Submission: Objection

Comments: It will be absolutely detrimental to the town.

Buxton is, and always has been, a huge draw to the tourism industry.

If there are groups of refugees spending their time in the recreational areas in the town,

We will lose tourists who spend a lot of money in the town and therefore local businesses will suffer.

The fact that there is very little police presence in the town, will be a problem if it affects the law and order in the community.

The safety of young people and vulnerable adults

If it was refugee families who were fleeing from the dangers in their own countries, then it would be a totally different scenario.
