Comments: I support this change of use, whomever it is planned to house. However, 274 rooms mean likely 150-200 cars maybe? We are not talking about college students anymore. The parking facilities need to be properly accounted for. 50 spaces don't look anywhere near enough.

If it is planned to house asylum seekers or refugees, there need to be an integration plan out in place. There are plenty of jobs available, it's great to boost things up a little.
