Comments: I am hugely concerned about the prospect of this becoming a asylum dispersal centre. I work in education and issues around poverty ,class A drug taking and impact on vulnerable young people and their families. County lines is a huge issue around Buxton and especially Fairfield. Having this entire will put added strain in local services, police , social services, schools and health. The asylum seekers will be at the centre social deprecation leaving them vulnerable and prime targets for criminal activities. How on earth will this work without impacting all negativity.
