Comments: Buxton is totally unsuitable for that big influx of asylum seekers. The town has not got the capacity to cope with people that will obviously need help be it, medical social or otherwise. The local police force and hospital are fully stretched as it is now.

Asylum seekers are not allowed to work what on Earth will they find to do in Buxton?

Buxton relies on tourism this planning application will be at the detriment of local business who rely on tourists visiting .300 asylum seekers hanging around the centre of Buxton and the park with nothing to do will give a tourists a bad impression of what now is a lovely Derbyshire town.
