Submission: Objection

Comments: I write to object to High Peak Halls change of use because, as we have now found out it is to be transformed into an Asylum Seekers Dispersal Center. There are no recreations grounds around the halls meaning that the doors lead directly onto the pavement in the town centre. 300 single men with no jobs would be wandering around town. As we know Buxton is already having problems with drug gangs and those asylum seekers would be prime target thus increasing theft, drug distribution, violence etc. Are the devolved authorities aware of their past? Have they been police checked? Buxton is a beautiful little town relying on tourism. How can it welcome so many single men when it already has enough infrastructures to support the buxtonians.
