Buxton is a beautiful tourist town, and should remain that way.

The infrastructure of Buxton is already under huge pressure. What will happen when ALL the new homes are completed? There's already a huge change for this town coming with that alone, without allowing 270 to 300 asylum seekers to come and take residence.

We will feel unsafe in our homes. Crimes such as burglary have very nearly doubled in the last 6 years. There are insufficient police here to keep us safe.

There are insufficient: school places, jobs, shops and leisure facilities.

TO the committee: If you don't live here in this beautiful town, imagine that it is where you live and how you or your children and grandchildren would feel.

Please RETURN this decision - do not REFUSE it.
