Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:

26 30 SYLVAN COURT Union Road New Mills Derbyshire SK22 3EN

Description of Development:

Creation of a raised weather canopy over outdoor circulation space

High Peak Borough Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above in accordance with plans ref: DA22105.2.001, DA22105.2.002, DA22105.2.003, DA22105.2.004, DA22105.2.005, DA22105.2.006, DA22105.2.007 for the reason(s) specified below:-

1. Insufficient information has been submitted by the applicant for officers to fully assess the impact of the works on the significance of New Mills Conservation Area. Notwithstanding this the proposed development by virtue of its design, materials and siting would result in the introduction of a prominent and incongruous addition that fails to enhance or preserve the character of the New Mills Conservation Area. The development would result in less than significant harm to the designated heritage asset. This harm is not outweighed by any public benefits. The proposed development is therefore contrary to Policies S6, EQ6 and EQ7 of the High Peak Local Plan 2016, the adopted New Mills Conservation Area Appraisal 2008 and the National Planning Policy Framework.

Informatives

The Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application, in accordance with paragraph 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework, by assessing the proposal against relevant planning policies and all material considerations and identifying matters of concern with the application. In this instance, the nature of the planning issues were considered to be so fundamental that no further negotiation was sought with the applicant.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
1. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
2. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
3. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
4. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>
5. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
6. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of
