Subject: Traffic Monitoring A57 Wain Homes Dinting Vale

Good morning,

I am a resident of Adderley Place and have noticed that Wain Homes are conducting a traffic survey on the A57 as part of their application to build on Adderley Fields (not Dinting Vale as it is named in the application).

I'm not sure if you are aware that there are currently temporary traffic lights at the bottom of Simmondley Lane. We know from previous experience that any lights in the vicinity of the A57 cause long tail backs and bring traffic to a standstill. Monitoring will obviously show that cars are not moving at normal pace. Therefore, surely this monitoring will result in an inaccurate illustration of traffic.

It would be appropriate to conduct this survey at another time, when other works are taking place.

I would like this comment to be placed on the planning portal, and also a reply of acknowledgement from yourself would be very much appreciated.

Many thanks,

Sarah Bott
