Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:

Hardcastle Mews, Terrace Road, Chapel-En-Le-Frith, Derbyshire, SK23 0EX

Description of Development:

New windows and doors

High Peak Borough Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above in accordance with plans refs: 02 Rev A, 03 Rev A, 04 Rev A and Location Plan for the reason(s) specified below:-

1. The site is located within the Chapel-en-le-Frith Conservation Area, which is a designated heritage asset. Insufficient information has been provided which demonstrates that the proposed alterations, which includes the installation of upvc openings, would be an appropriate alteration and be of a design and appearance which preserves and enhances the character or appearance of the Conservation Area. The proposals would cause less than substantial harm to the significance of the heritage asset, and the public benefits identified would not be sufficient to outweigh the harm identified. The development proposals would therefore be contrary to Policies S1, EQ6, EQ7 and CF1 of the High Peak Local Plan 2016, the Design Guide SPD (2018), and relevant paragraphs under Chapter 12 and 16 of the NPPF.

The Framework advises that the LPA should work proactively with applicants to secure developments that improve the economic, social and environmental conditions of the area. In this instance the applicant has provided additional information to seek to address the concerns raised by consultees. However the concerns were not overcome.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
1. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
2. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
3. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
4. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>
5. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
6. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of
