Comments: I object to this large planning development on the grounds that Glossop has been saturated with housing developments over recent years. Old Glossop in particular was an appealing and characterful old area of Glossop which has been decimated by 2 modern 2 characterless houses. The streets dating back to the early 18th century cannot cope with the volume of extra traffic these developments create. The town of Glossop is gradually becoming gridlocked with traffic. In addition to this volume of traffic and pollution every green space is being developed. Glossop needs services doctors, dentists, schools, leisure centres and a hospital NOT more houses. Better use of the site would be an old people's home / nursing home following on from its previous use.
