Dear Declan,

I refer to the above application recently received by this authority for highway comments.

There are no details provided on whether the stables are for personal use or if they offer a livery facility. It is assumed that they are for personal use and these comments are made on that basis.

There are no highway objections to the alterations to the stables. It is recommended that a condition is included in any consent granted requiring the stables to remain ancillary to the main dwelling and to be for personal use only.

Yours sincerely,

Adrian Martin
