

Condition 23

There will not be a management company set up for the development. The site land will be split as per the attached land registry plans. Each property will own the piece of road in their boundary and grant permission for necessary properties to pass over their land. There will be a covenant in the deed that makes everyone with access rites responsible for the upkeep of the access road.