Comments: We note that the application has not been validated but there is a deadline date on the period for comments of 26th December. . There are no plans appended to the portal so this has not presented us with an opportunity to review the application. The applicant has parked on the upper part of the land in their camper van and we do have concerns that in this position that it is obtrusive to the character of the land. We are not against the proposals in principle but would request due consideration to siting the parking area and building in the lower portion of the land.
