Comments: I can not believe this is even being thought about. Taking away yet more areas for the children to play in all weathers. If you want to reduce anti social behaviour taking away places for children to be safe is not the way to do it. How about putting things in for the children to do to keep them out of trouble, invest in youth clubs, pop up cinemas, activities for them to engage in! Make Chapel a nice place for the kids to grow up and make memories with their family and friends!
