Dear sir/madam

Further to your letter dated 11 October in relation to the above planning application (attached for ease of reference) I am now in a position to provide the amended documents requested. In addition to the amended drawings, we are also submitting some further information that we would like added to our application, please.

All of the indexed documents can be downloaded by clicking on the link below and reference should be made to the updated list in the document titled Annex 1 (attached – see Docs 81 - 117). Doc. 81 (AIA) was previously submitted to the Council on 10 October, but we have included it again in this submission for completeness.

If you have any issues in downloading the information please let me know and we will arrange for it to be sent to you in an alternative way.

I have copied in Ben Haywood so he is aware that this information has been submitted as the timing of when the application is validated starts the programme in the Planning Performance Agreement which is due to be signed shortly.

Regards
