Hi Chris

As promised, please find attached our submission of further documents which seek to address recent comments. The documents can be downloaded from the link below and are numerically indexed as per the attached Annex 1 Document which shows the running order of things.

The Annex 1 and Cover Letter are attached for ease of reference.

There has been some progress on the archaeology front. The applicant's consultant has been liaising directly with the DCC Archaeologist Steve Baker and I hope to have an update with you shortly.

In relation to the latest query from the LLFA the applicant's engineers have reached out directly to highways (see attached) and I'll come back to you when I get a response.

I hope this helps for now and catch up soon no doubt.

Kind regards
