Our Balcony was refused on privacy terms so we was told, next doors balcony is off there kitchen also next door owners has no problem with us having a balcony what's so ever and I can get this in writing? This property is air B&B and only occupied at weekends as and when they have bookings? I can see in the kitchen directly from my garden and speak to owners from my garden and who ever is staying there as there balcony is above my garden so where is my privacy and my families i have small children and next doors balcony is in my garden over looking my whole garden so how was there's approved? and most of all the other neighbours in hayfield have balconies ?? so with next door having a balcony and its a air B&B so anyone could stay here could be criminals for all we know watching my house and my children so just don't get how next doors was approved if in someone elses garden which is my garden? and would want this looking in to if we cant have ours as isn't fair as all.

also we had a trainee dealing with our application who never replied to emails and took forever to get back to us and took that long that she had to put in extension on are decision date and even though i sent all the supporting evidence and photos and was told everyone was busy and computers not working etc i felt fobbed off and that they couldn't be bothered to review our case and just declined our application on ridiculous grounds when next door has a balcony practically in my garden then most the neighbour on my street and around hayfield have balconies.
